D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE
RESTORATIVE
PILLS OF IRON.

And aperient and Stomachic preparation of IRON purified by combination in Hydrogen.— Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it.— Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

It is in its medicinal qualities which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In debility, nervous affections, emaciation, dyspepsia, constipation, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigest, anæmia, chlorosis, scrofulous Tuberculosis, Syphilis, Rheumatism, neuralgia, white, chlorotic, liver complaints, chronic headaches, rheumatism, intermittent fevers, pimples on the face, &c.

In cases of general debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful which no description or attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden so long as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent anæmia, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physicians have no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old exiles, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating, and gently regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of constipation without overbearing a gastric pur-gative, or inducing a disagreeable reaction.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effective for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant constipation.

In unchecked diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pain, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating course and resultant hectic, which generally indicate inipient consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known ill effects.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently directed to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory —in the latter, however, more decidedly—its beneficial effects have been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its recovery in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat tin boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to
